Our family enjoyed a fabulous lunch at the Kin Kin General Store and will definitely return. We were seated on the front verandah and received excellent service from start to finish. The menu is terrific with a huge selection of plates to satisfy the most fussy of diners and a decent selection of wine, beers and non-alcoholic beverages. Some of the star dishes on the day included the beef brisket burger (say that three... read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Kin Kin General Store:

I haven't stopped for a coffee here for many years and had high expectations based on my last experience. not sure whether I was a trainee or a new one, but the coffee was simply not on "Barista quality" standards. it was frothy on... above and not creamier sitting as it should etc. and for me, personally, I don't like to pay almost $5 for a small cup of moderate coffee.
