I stayed at the Franklin for one night, and we were upgraded to a suite. The room was really lovely and very comfortable. We also had a lovely meal in the pub downstairs. The only problem was that the light from the bus depot across the road made it difficult to sleep; it was so bright that it was like having a torch in our faces all night. I eventually hung a towel over the window, which helped to block it out. Just... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. What User doesn't like about The Franklin Hotel:

Pretty good, all in all. Good service (well, this time... I'll forgive the last time), good food and a good atmosphere - but with no carpet or furniture to absorb the screeching of a hen's night, it's probably best avoided if you see one coming. But I suppose you can say that with anywhere. read more.
