This place is a treasure. I normally have the combo of cold packs but have occasionally have had the laksa. Excellent - staff are great and the place has a social conscious. read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Roll'n on Bower:

I was a regular patron of the institution, although no new visit to today. It seems there was a change in management. While I was quickly served, While the payment was left to the person who served me to do something without comment...when I had a reception or even when the payment was approved. I really found that rude. When I went to eat my garden salad with chicken, I found very little chicken in it. There wasn't...
