Friendly prompt service, standouts were salt and pepper tofu and eggplant. Pork belly was ok, tea smoked duck and white bait very nice. Poached chicken breast with ginger I wouldn't order again as it was bland. Vegetarian fried rice ok. $250 for 6 people which is reasonable. Recommend read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Wah Hing:

Good food but extremely rude female owner/manager. Told us off for bringing in "outside food" which happened to be baby food... this after our group spent over a hundred dollars there. Left with a bad taste in our mouths which is not what we were looking for. Choose another restaurant with a better atmosphere, there's enough of them on gouger read more. Let yourself be thrilled in Wah Hing from Adelaide by versatile, delicious Chinese cuisine that's traditionally prepared in a wok, The visitors of the establishment also appreciate the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. The meals are prepared according to authentic Asian style, Furthermore, the customers love the inventive combination of different meals with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
