The Menu of Yim Yam from Melbourne includes about 81 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about A$16. What User likes about Yim Yam:

I've lost count of how many times I've visited this restaurant. The extensive menu is from Laos but includes all the usual Thai dishes. There is also a daily specials board. The food is excellent without fail; the service is extremely warm, friendly and inviting; and the place is always buzzing. Booking is recommended. I highly recommend this place...! read more. When the weather is good you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Yim Yam:

We used to love this place but not sure what's went wrong with it. We arrived had to ask for menus after about 15 minutes. We then waited 45 minutes for our starters and a further 30 minutes then for our mains which they got two of the dishes wrong. What truly infuriated me was all the while the Uber ears are flying out of the kitchen while we sat there waiting for our food. Management really need to sort out their prio... read more. From Melbourne comes Yim Yam and brings tasty dishes to the table, seasoned with the Thai culinary known spices and (fish-)sauces, in addition to fresh vegetables, seafood and meat, On the menu there are also several Asian meals. Surely, it's also a nice event to feel like in the Wild West once, to drink and consume like the cowboys or even the bandits with a beverage or two paired with onion rings and a nice spicy burger, At the bar, you can unwind with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
