We were seated in next to no time on a Sunday around lunch time just before the rush. The waiter snapped up our order straight away and we had our Margarita pizza come out no longer than 15 min after we ordered. The base was perfectly cooked, and the topping was great. It took a while to receive the bill, but that was due to the influx of waiting diners outside. Would recommend for sure! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about Zia Pina Pizzeria:

A small restaurant in the rocks which also has space in the upper floor. Run by an Italian. We had pizza and it was good. But if you have ever been to - or close to - Italy don't expect similar taste, dough and others. The regular pizza (around 8") is for A$20, the LARGE (12") costs A$30!. Additional toppings per A$4/5. Finally: if you expect some italian background music there you're wrong: it was kinda modern english... read more.
