The salad is always fresh and a decent price ($9.50 for large box), and the kale, greek, pasta and rice options are all great. Staff are really friendly too and seem to make the effort to find out a little bit about each customer, which is a nice touch. Sandwiches look great, although I'm yet to try one. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Delisse:

Here was the place for breakfast my last day in Sydney. The place is comfortable and cool because there are many large shady trees on the side of the road in front of it. The pastries are delicious and you can choose from other types of food from Turkey, Italy and France. The waitress was quick to serve because three people were on duty at once. Although the place is not too wide and there are few tables, it is still... read more. In the morning, you can enjoy a diverse brunch at Delisse, freely at your own will, For a snack in between, the tasty sandwiches, small salads, and other snacks are suitable. Meals are usually prepared in the shortest time for you and brought to the table, Also, the customers of the restaurant love the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer.
