I spent a few weeks trying to find Sydney's best scones. I based my evaluation mainly on the scone and partially on the level of the customer service I experienced. I didn't take into consideration how quiet or lovely the place was – this was strictly based on the delivery of service and how much it made my taste buds dance. For me the clear winner was the Organic Bread Bar with their spelt scone – it was perfectly moist... read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, and into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Organic Bread Bar:

For a specialized bakery, the mandel croissant was very average, dry and deflated. But I had a little of here before that was okay. The people who work there are nice. The place in general is overpriced, but I guess it can be because it is the only cafe in the opposite. A new one has now opened next to him, hopefully this is a little better. read more. In Organic Bread Bar in Darlinghurst, they prepare delicious pizza using a time-honored method, served fresh. The barbecued food is freshly grilled here on an open flame. When you're not so hungry, you can just treat yourself to one of the fine sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack. At the bar, you can unwind with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
