Stopped by for a kebab after the football. There was a bit of a wait. A wait well with it. My kebab was so fresh, so tasty. The reason for the wait is that the dough for the wrap is being cooked, not just warmed. Sauces and hummous were also full of flavour. Awesome! read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Erciyes Restaurant:
We were there with the family few nights ago celebrating. We ordered their banquet and we paid 55 dollars each. For 275 dollars we received couple of plates of salad, one plate with few dips, a plate of kebab with yoghurt, bread, 3 pide and a plate with no more than 100g of rice and some mixed meat (total weight of the meat no more than 300grams). Pretty average, no exciting interiors, no modern plates and serving di... read more. At Erciyes Restaurant from Surry Hills it's possible to taste delicious vegetarian menus, that were made without any animal meat or fish, In addition to that, the customers of the establishment can also enjoy typical dishes from Turkey - starting from Lahmacun, over different kinds of Kebabs, to sticky-sweet desserts. For those who are not yet convinced, to persuade themselves to visit the Erciyes Restaurant, the smell of fresh flatbread or the scrumptious, sticky sweetness that fresh baklava promises might help - the Middle East is surely closer than one thinks, Additionally, easy digestible Mediterranean menus are on the menu.
