We visited after purchasing Groupon vouchers for $20 each. A huge line up at opening time was a good indication it was very popular even at the undiscounted price. There was a great assortment of gastronomical delights for all tastes including some seafood. The grilled fish peices cooked on the BBQ were amazing. Desserts were varied but the panna cotta was a winner. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Greenbank RSL: Had the Saturday Night Seafood Buffet. The service was so good. The food options was fantastic. However the taste left a lot to be desired. Very bland tasteless food. The seafood was ok. But most other options really lacked spark. Desert bar was the pick for quality. Very limited wine selection. All in all an OK experience but could be so much better. read more. If you crave for desserts, Greenbank RSL with its delicious desserts can easily make an end of it, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Also, they proffer you fine seafood dishes, Additionally, they provide you typical Australian menus with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
