We sat down with for a brunch. Even though just off the main road there is plenty of parking. We were in on a Saturday morning and the service - while friendly - was slow. It seemed they have too many tables for the capacity of the kitchen. Dishes were all great - little tweaks on all our favourites. I would definitely go again when in the Greenslopes area. What User doesn't like about The Jam Pantry:

Was excited to check out this place but was soon to be disappointed. After a wait ~ 20 mins, they were struggling to find a table. After the staff managed to find a table, they were unable to provide adequate seating. The staff were an absolute shambles, the manager even more so. Would not recommend!!! read more.
