Usually I stop by for coffee and is always good. Few times it's been closed so not sure on their working hours.

However, very lovely little cafe, but parking sometimes makes it difficult for me. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WiFi.

If the weather are right, you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about Honey Oak Cafe:

Hi, started going here when they first opened after our morning walk, some mornings. Have only had coffee. But when I've tried to go back with friends they are never open, so I always have to take them to the Z. Which is a shame as I finish work at 3.15 and at most times feel like coffee and at times have a crucial catch up. Hours don't suit workers. It's a shame as people are nice and so is the coffee. Rating is onl... read more.
