Here you can find the menu of Tides in Rhyll. At the moment, there are 17 courses and drinks on the card. You can inquire about seasonal or weekly deals via phone. What User likes about Tides: Always great fish ???? and chips ???? The only negative is that they are not open on a Sunday night but other than that the best fish and chips I've had in Australia read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Tides: That's the worst and the most oily chips I ever had!!!! And I think the oil wasn't changed for a very long time as I felt sick all night and couldn't get that oily taste out of my mouth or the next day!!! Terrible experience!!!! Never go back! To add to this when we were leaving we said thank you and said good bye and the two ladies didn't even reply, they were too busy talking to each other! Bad customer service. read more. If you're in a hurry and need something quick, you can get tasty Fast-Food dishes to your taste from Tides in Rhyll, prepared for you in few minutes, and you may look forward to the delicious traditional seafood cuisine. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The visitors of the restaurant also appreciate the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer.
