We had to be in the area for some repair work so stepped into Otto's Fresh Food Market's bakery section. The ready made lunch rolls, even though expensive, looked really appetising. So I bought a couple and also the devil's foot pastry besides other items. We looked forward to lunch but it was a complete let down. The rolls were really dense and, despite the filling, there was just no flavour whatsoever. Very disappo... read more. Perfectly pairing with the meals of the restaurant are the fresh and delicious juices on the drinks menu, Additionally, they provide you authentic Australian meals with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
