The Elefant Lounge Cafe in Sandringham is a favourite of mine and my regular place for my daily caffeine fix. Eric and his staff are always friendly and welcoming and Emma is a wonderful cook. Today I treated myself to lunch and had the most delicious meal of corn fritters with salsa, avocado and rocket served with sweet chilli sauce and sour cream. It looked fabulous as well as tasting great and was a generous size.... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Elephant Lounge Cafe:

Visited this establishment for the first time a few weeks ago on a Sunday. Service was just ok- food adequate at best- noticed 6 front of house staff scratching for things to do- wandering around the front counter looking bored(not a good look) one young bloke sat down with customers to tuck into a very large lunch !! I really don't like it when staff sit down with paying guests- no flexibility with the menu- and mos... read more.
