My husband took me to this place for lunch. We had the lamb and falafel called Caro. It was delicious. I wish I could keep eating. This is a must try place when in Coburg. Big Thumbs up read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Half Moon Cafe:

We ordered the food for two and it seems took for one person only, when the food arrived. The service is slow.

The food tasted bland, it lacked the spices and flavors. The prices for dishes are higher than similar dishes in other places. The owner lacks sophistication and makes cheap remarks towards the customers. read more. Half Moon Cafe from Reservoir is a comfortable café, where you can have a small snack or cake with a warm coffee or a hot chocolate, The customers also rave about the fine, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the exciting combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the top-picks from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East.
