This place is a cluster of 3 restaurants side by side – Sheesh Mahal is in the middle, an Italian & Thai place on either side. We visited for dinner on a Saturday evening with our BYO wine. It is best to arrive here early before it gets busy – they receive a huge amount of telephone orders. The balcony could certainly do with some oscillating fans, given that we are in the middle of Summer. The lady serving our table... read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Sheesh Mahal Indian Restaurant:

We were excited that we may have found a good local Indian restaurant. Whilst the owners were very friendly & wanting to please, our wait staff were not. Our waitress could not speak English which made ordering for our large group difficult & the waiter was grumpy. The food was very average with little by way of nuts or yogurt, everything seemed thickened with flour. The serves were generous though & our take home "d... read more.
