Truthfully, I went here because I was staying across the road and Locavore had no available tables.... I was very impressed! Very friendly attentive staff, great coffee and the eggs on Turkish were very tasty, and everything came out quickly. Great prices as well - paid half of what the cafe across the road charges! Highly recommend.

I came here for breakfast and a place to wait. I only got a coffee and a croissant but I must say it was the worst ham and cheese croissant. The ham was so dry it was almost jerky and the cheese was oily and tasteless. The coffee was okay and I'm sure they have better menu options. They do have cabinet with premade sandwiches and sweets and toilets are available. read more.
