The food was supposed to be Sri Lankan but everything was more likely Indian. You have naan, butter chicken, tandoori chicken, chilli chicken, lamb curry & etc. The food and chai(tea) was nice though. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Drums Cafe:

This was my sisters first meal in Melbourne. We were quite hungry and the food we had filled the spot. My sisters tandoori chicken was a bit dry, but my butter chicken was just right - not too spicy. The restaurant itself is quite small, but there is seating in the food hall to take the overflow. read more. A visit to Drums Cafe is particularly valuable due to the large variety of coffee and tea specialties, With typical Indian spices, meals are tasty and freshly prepared. In addition to simple snacks, sweet pieces and cakes, we also serve cold and hot drinks, Among the guests, especially fine juices are highly sought after.
