Moor offers a set menu Tagine night every Thursday. They prepare 2 tagines [1 meat variety and 1 vegetarian] and some desert courses. We shared a beef and a vegetarian tagine and both were excellent with wonderful flavours and spices. They are very reasonably priced and definitely value for money. It is also BYO. The staff were busy but attentive and efficient. The restaurant was booked out so if you are contemplating... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also be served outside.

What User doesn't like about Moor:

A bit disappointing. Probably my poor choice but the shakshuka was ordinary. I expected more than a bowl of tomato soup with poached eggs. There was no spice and it had not been baked. Other than that the service was friendly and the coffee...was good. The menu was limited but you could construct more regular dishes from the 'extras'. We still enjoyed a good chat. read more. Moor from Newcastle delivers delectable, light digestible Mediterranean cuisine with its typical courses, This sports bar is a popular hangout for customers who enjoy watching the latest games or races on the big screen while enjoying food and drinks. Also try the spicy Spanish meals from the kitchen of the restaurant, they are worth it, Customers repeatedly praise the fine, light flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the exciting combination of figs and goat cheese is among the hits from the diverse culinary landscape of the Middle East.
