So many recommendations for good coffee here in Newcastle, I started at Welsh Blacks because it was just around the corner from my ab&b accommodation. This is a small but classy cafe that serves a bit of food, mainly toasties and soup (winter). Enough table space to sit around 20 people or so. On the board there is posted that black coffee beans are from Antigua, Guatemala and Mecca Roasters Seems like a reason... read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Welsh blacks:

Coffee was good but nothing to rave about, $10 toastie was ok, it was a Saturday late morning so only 3 choices of cakey stuff left, and as it's a teeny tiny place be prepared to sit outside. There are coffee tables and stools out the front, or chairs and tables around the side. I was stuck near an annoying couple treating their dog like a naughty child (not Welsh Black's fault!) and kept looking inside for somewhere... read more. Welsh blacks from COOKS HILL is a relaxed café, where you can have a small snack or cake with a warm coffee or a sweet chocolate, delectable vegetarian recipes are also on the menu available. Of course, we must not forget the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Forbreakfast a hearty brunch is offered here.
