I was very encouraged to discover that they were avoiding cross contamination and they make their own GF bread and desserts. Everything was tasty and a new cuisine for me. I have never enjoyed eggplant until I tried it here. I would encourage coeliacs to give it a go. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Afghan Rahimi Restaurant:

Very arrogant, rude, abusive, insulting and disrespecting owner. Food is way overpriced with limited choices and no flexibility in comparison to the many other Afghan restaurants in the same area. It is a place to avoid. We actually walked out of the restaurant in disgust before ordering our meals (mainly based on the owner's attitude) and had a wonderful Afghan dining experience somewhere else 2 minutes away walking...
