What User likes about AfghanTasty Food: We had lunch here after reading the reviews on Trip Adviser. The Ashak was fantastic, delicious dumplings filled with chives and coriander, topped with yoghurt and spicy red beans. My friend had the chapli kebab which he said was deliciously spicy and very fresh. The service was very good for a casual lunch place and the staff were very happy and friendly. Our new favourite afghani restaurant in Dandenong. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about AfghanTasty Food: i tried this place with my partner based on the reviews as the original place we go to was closed.service was terrible, food was even worse.threw it up few hrs later.not sure if these reviews are so true.defiantly wont be going back.
