What User likes about The Waiting Room: The Waiting Room in the lobby of Crown Towers offers a blend of style and romance. My suggestion for a romantic interlude - try the seafood tapas, which includes fresh oysters, prawns, a decent serve of sliced smoked trout, scallops in their shell with a buttery thyme dressing, lemon wedges, and a sprawl of cracker biscuits. Have this with their dry reisling and finish with their coffee and a glass of brandy in a wide... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about The Waiting Room: Seeking a place within the range of restaurants and coffee shops within the Crowne complex to meet for brunch on a Sunday. No was the answer from the website. That is a problem was the answer from the phone. Third try the 'consultant' said the Waiting Room at Crowne Towers would do coffee/ tea/ drinks and a limited menu from 10.00 am. We ordered tea and coffee, received 1 coffee and 2 teas for $17.00 and 'sorry there... read more. A visit to The Waiting Room is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. The restaurant provides a rich variety of delicious tapas, which are without a doubt worth a sample, and you may look forward to the delicious traditional seafood cuisine.
