On arrival we could immediately see that we had to sit outside and it was freezing. The staff apologised and offered us some coffees to warm up with (without paying or heading to the counter) . They then said when a table inside became free we could head inside. Almost immediately a table became free and we headed into the warmth. We ordered the Eggs on Toast and the Belgium waffles. The staff were happy to adapt the... read more.

Visited the on line menu and when I saw the prizes expected something special. star prizes. However, when visiting the place nothing was special. Staff in own casual clothes, decor very ordinary, simple and cheap. Food basic, no special presentation and quality and taste...nothing to justified the price tag. Ask for strength long black and paid full price. Restaurant layout rather odd, divided in premises with full v... read more.
