Very nice cafe to enjoy coffee while passing some time at Flinders Street. The staff were very friendly, and service quick and I never felt compromised that I was only there for coffee. Seating was comfortable in a cosy setting, and I was unrushed and felt at ease sitting for a while. The experience ensures I will return. Oh.. and the coffee was excellent, and exactly as I ordered it read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about TimeOut Melbourne:

as most people on the day we were here, it was practically for the ngw. time out is a tourist concentrated facility, so they probably never see her again and it shows. we were looking forward to our breakfast on 4th January 2022. our order came and it was immediately obvious when I touched my cold plate and took up my cold espresso cup that this would not look good. my breakfast was the big fed my partner chose hallo...
