Was staying at my sisters pace right across the road and was looking forward to a return visit after eating there previously. It 's a deceptively large restaurant and the night I was there it was very quiet for dine in but busy for takeaway. Food has to be good for restaurants to survive in this very competitive environment and this place does not disappoint. Satays for entree were excellent as were the mains. Servic... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about Mai Thai Restaurant:

curry puffs were obviously frozen and not properly thawed. the main meal was more like a Chinese Stir peace than thai. Too bad after so many excellent meals here. read more.
