A well set out cafe who served great coffee and treats. The staff were friendly and professional and gave us some great tips for our trip and things to see in the town. read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about The Larder:

on the way to brisbane my croissant stayed in the press and looked like brot with ham and cheese. And as for the coffee it was bitter because of overextraction. I ordered a latte that was half a glass milk foam....A latte has about 3 mm silky milk not foam. the ice cream of my wife was overrun, otherwise it was okay. never back read more.
