We had dinner on a very busy Saturday night, but the staff handled everything with grace and a smile. The oysters were the biggest I have ever seen and delicious to boot. My lamb was superb and hubby was happy with the chicken. We didn't have dessert, but we were more than happy with the wine list options. read more. As a guest, you can use the WLAN of the place free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Cascades Restaurant:

We had booked a table online (fork), but they didn't have our reservation. Nice staff, attentive and friendly. The risotto was very tasty and the rice cooked to perfection (with a little bite to it), but unfortunately the Italian pasta dish was too salty and...dry (sauce too thick). Both meals were 19$ carb specials for the triathlon festival, we thought that was a good idea. The design of the place is quite unique I... read more. A visit to Cascades Restaurant is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, Forbreakfast a versatile brunch is offered here. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Moreover, the sweet desserts of the house shine not only in the eyes of our little guests.
