Canteen Kitchen and Canteen Coffee occupy a small space in between James and Park Streets Burleigh Heads.

They are separate buildings but operate as one. I called in to Canteen Kitchen for lunch but my coffee was delivered from the Canteen Coffee next door - and very good it was. As was my lunch... two poached eggs sitting on stewed spinach, which in turn was sitting on grilled halloumi. Lunch (inc coffee) was $19... g... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Canteen Kitchen:

a beautiful Asian waitress showed us on our table and gave us a bottle of water. we asked for an egg for a two-year-old infant, but that was not available and a piece of cake was suggested and bought. Unfortunately, an old man came out with a besen and began to upload him and tell us that we should go outside in the pavement if we want to make a mess. when he asked if he had children of himself and said that unfortun... read more. The succulent and fresh juices listed on the drinks menu, perfectly complete the dishes of the local, Additionally, they serve you typical Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes. For those who are not yet convinced, to persuade themselves to visit the Canteen Kitchen, the smell of fresh flatbread or the fine, sticky sweetness that fresh baklava promises might help - the Middle East is definitely closer than one thinks, the menu also includes tasty vegetarian dishes.
