If you want a good coffee this is the place. I have also had lovely breakfasts here several times. They always have something a little different on their specials and some yummy options in the fridge. Well worth a visit. read more. When the weather is good you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Kats Whiskers Cafe and Catering:

I probably visit here twice a month (usually on pay days) but $8 for a sandwich is a bit rich. The food is good quality but for what you get, it can be at times over priced. read more.
