.The service was very friendly and not pushy The meal could not be faulted we started with cheesy mustard bread (slices of Turkish bread with cheese and mustard butter) and a cob loaf which was unbelievably tasty. My wife decided on the stuffed chicken breast and I had the 300g Rib fillet with salad and chips. My mouth still waters at the thought of it sitting on my plate. it was a melt in the mouth experience. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Canecutters Kitchen:

Was looking forward to trying a new place in Bundy ... boy were we disappointed! The chicken burger had no flavour or texture ... was like eating soggy chicken on a tasteless bun and as for the basil pesto pasta ... was hard to find the pasta with the amount of oil it was swimming in! When we had finished (pushed our food aside) we had to wait for up to 20 minutes for the waiter ... who only had 3 tables to serve and... read more. At
