We were staying at the hotel and decided to dine at the attached restaurant. We had a great dinner, we shared the lovely bread and Brie and mushroom entree and I had the thoroughly delicious oxtail while my husband had the pork steak. We finished off with the bread and butter pudding. The wine list was excellent and we savoured every drop of the Coriole Shiraz. The service was excellent and very attentive. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Manor at Cotswold Gardens:

We have had lovely meals at this restaurant before, however last night was very disappointing. Quite a few of the dishes on the menu were not available. The bread that came with the soup was burnt-the waitress said "sorry about that "and took our plates. We should have complained when we received the soup. One of the main courses said that it came with parsnip purée and what was on the plate was mashed potato. The wa... read more. For the small hunger in between, Manor at Cotswold Gardens from Armidale offers scrumptious sandwiches, healthy salads, and other small meals, as well as hot and cold drinks, Additionally, they offer you typical Australian menus with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub presents a diverse diversity of fine and regional alcoholic options, be it beer or wine, In addition, the sweet desserts of the establishment shine not only on children's plates or in the eyes of the little guests.
