Our party of six love Indian food and we decided to go to Haandi Indian Restaurant in Fremantle. And we were not disappointed! The food was excellent, the portions generous, and it was excellent value. One thing which is important was that we could actually talk together without having to shout. So many restaurants are such noisy places but this was not a noisy place, and we could have great conversations and laughs... read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Haandi Indian Restaurant:

There should have been a notice on the door to say there was a private event on not open the restaurant to the general public nor take any bookings. It was extremely loud with wailing children up top and loud clubbing style music. It was too late to back out as we had ordered. Staff seems undertrained and unsure what to do. We had to get our own menus. The serving size of food is average, very saucy, taste was quite... read more. If you want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, Haandi Indian Restaurant from Fremantle is a good bar, the menu also includes fine vegetarian meals. Customers also appreciate the use of traditional Indian spices.
