We had a very large table of family to farewell my mother who had just passed. What a great place to gather, eat some excellent food and enjoy a very cold Aussie beer! A very friendly venue, a variety of places to sit, gamble, tv or just as we did, swap seats as we drank and ate and caught up as a family. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Terrey Hills Tavern:

Stopped for a quick lunch on the way home, ordered lamb souvlaki and was given a pager. From where I was sitting, I could see my meal when it was put on the pass. After it sat there for the better part of five minutes, I asked the staff if it was mine. "Sorry, your pager mustn't be working." No, someone forgot to send the pager signal. Most kitchen staff respectfully constrained or cropped their hair, except for one c... read more.
