What User likes about Cafe Matisse: We stopped for lunch on the way through Gympie and were glad we did. The cafe was busy but staff were well up to the task. Although we only wanted toasted sandwiches it was easy to see that there were some great options for something more. The offerings looked great and the number of people who chose them indicates they are popular. After the sandwiches we chose to have a slice of apple pie which was delicious. Prici...
