What User doesn't like about Hell Town Hotrods:

The hotrod on the roof is an eyecatcher from far away. Several old cars can be seen around the property and in the garage. The restaurant is set up like a little museum with lots of car and motorcycle and petrol history. Several items can be bought as souvenirs. A great place to see. However we were not satisfied with the food and would probably not stop again for something to eat. read more.
