What a find! Most unprepossessing cafe in the Huon, wooden shopfront with working bakery next door, great variety of breads and pastries and the best croissants I have eaten outside of France and all baked on the premises. The dining room is like a secret hide away behind the shop. At this time of the year (July) there is a log fire going and tulips on the tables. This place is truly unique, the staff are efficient and... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Summer Kitchen:

My wife and I decided to take her new car for a Sunday drive down to the Huon district, and called in for coffee and cake at the Summer Kitchen. To say the place was a charisma free zone is really an understatement, as the two girls who were there barely made eye contact, and I was left feeling that they were doing me a favour by being open for me. The Hazelnut and Quinoa brownies were great, the coffee was ok, altho... read more. Are you looking for sweet treats?
