What User likes about The Hatter And The Hare: Order simple scrambled eggs with hash brown and hubby ordered poached eggs. There was a slight issue with my eggs but was sorted out straight away and the owner even came out from the kitchen later to see if things were ok- was really impressed with this touch! The hash brown has a seeded mustard through it and it was so delicious!! And the bacon was a thick cut- simple yet delicious!! Will definitely be back! read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about The Hatter And The Hare: Arrived on a Sunday morning without a booking and it's popularity was evident. After waiting 15 minutes we were seated outside under the heater (thank god).. coffee was good, breakfast was delicious. The service team were competent and appeared unrattled by the volume of customers. A nice suburban surprise read more. The large variety of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to The Hatter And The Hare even more worthwhile, look forward to the typical scrumptious French cuisine. If you'd like something sweet to finish off, The Hatter And The Hare does not disappoint with its large selection of desserts, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
