We went for the $25 lunch deal and this included a delicious main - generous portion, too - a glass of wine and a decadent dessert. Service was excellent and it was lovely sitting outside with a cooling sea breeze on a very hot day! A fine dining experience but also catering for kids/teens. Thoroughly recommend it if you're on the Sunshine Coast read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Three Bar and Grill:

The food came at a reasonable time 10/10
Without a doubt the best steak I've had in sunny coast 10/10 great job the chunky chips too thick and not cooked through 4/10. The staff had their heads down and not looking to see if there was more they could do took ten minutes to get their attention. It's money that... read more.
