Dropped in on a whim before a movie and was impressed from start to finish. Very attentive staff and wonderful delicate flavours that I didn't expect. 5-star presentation and perfectly cooked food. The consensus was that we had the most perfectly cooked pieces of barramundi and chicken breast we had ever had, and the Naan was beautiful and light. On the more expensive side for their dishes, but well worth it. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about Nilgiri's:

On the outset I am surprised by some of the very negative reviews. I've also done my fair share of eating out have come to the conclusion many write subjective bad reviews based on emotions not about the food service. The honest...service was just that owners doing an earnest job with clearly their heart in it. Couldn't do enough for you. My only gripe would be that many of the dishes were all so rich, that it became... read more.
