Interesting little place. Nice courtyard but a little cramped when it's busy..Had the breaky burger which was really tasty. My friend had the zucchini fritters which she said were good too. However being a coffee critic she said the coffee was not good. Around a nice trendy little cafe. Would go again. Staff member taking our money wasn't very pleasant though which put us off a little. It seems like they need more s... read more. What User doesn't like about Ristretto & Co:

I was looking forward to brunch here based on previous reviews. We had a wait for the table, not too long considering it was packed. First up was a round of coffees. Beautifully presented but lukewarm. Sent it back but the second was the same so I just drank it. Toast was overcooked but my friend's eggs looked nice. Staff were friendly and fast. It was trendy looking and well presented and the outdoor heaters very we... read more. The fresh and tasty juices on the drinks menu perfectly complement the meals of the establishment, tasty vegetarian dishes are also in the menu available. Typically, the burgers of this place are served as highlights along with filling side dishes like fries, leaf and cabbage salads or wedges, Additionally, they serve you typical Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
