What User likes about Cafe Brass Bell: An intimate friendly place to meet friends for coffee and something more. Staff are really lovely and whilst I would have loved one of their wonderful looking sweets I decided on the potato and leek soup. Served with crusty bread and a side of sour cream it made for a fabulous winter mid morning warmer. A place to make as a regular on our must dos. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Cafe Brass Bell:

I went here for lunch on the weekend and it was sooo noisy. We were the only people there and the kitchen was way up the other end of the room and it was still really, really noisy. I think if they had some sort of covering on the concrete floor would it be quieter. Wouldn't like to come here if it was full, would be unbearable. Apart from the noise and the concrete floor the cafe is nice. Lots of things on the menu to... read more.
