What User likes about Cooma Thai: I eat here at least once a week (3 times last week) and the food keeps getting better... top pick lately has been the spicy noodles and a satay chicken stir fry veggies (made dish up and Rung is happy to cook). She makes it delicious and with low/no oil when requested. The very generous amount of carefully cut up veggies in each dish leaves one feeling well nourished and jolly. Thanks for the consistently great food... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Cooma Thai: After flying from the Gold Coast to Sydney then driving over five hours to visit our elderly Mum we were very tired and hungry. We choose Thai because Mum enjoys it. Ordered spring rolls which were just ok Thai fried rice which was a mound of glug and beef in oyster sauce which was watery and tasteless and to top it off there were flies which the owner made no attempt to get rid of. A most disappointing experience. read more. For those who want to a beer after work and sit with friends or alone, COOMA Thai from COOMA is a good bar, On the menu there are also several Asian menus. Look forward to the enjoyment of fine vegetarian meals, Thai meals are prepared here with the famous spices and (fish-) sauces.
