I'm lucky enough for this cafe to almost be my "local". I regularly meet friends there for coffee or make it part of my daily dog walk route. The coffee and the charming little bite-sized biscuit accompanying it is always very good. The baked treats on the front counter are fresh and high quality. Service is informal, friendly and brisk. Have only eaten from the breakfast menu once or twice but would happily choose anyth... read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about The Lion and Buffalo:

Although in a handy location near the coastal walk the food and coffee at this place are not up to standard. Breakfast was a big disappointment and not offering lactose free milk is a little baffling these days. The owner does make an effort when it comes to service and caters for dog owners and cyclists. It is just a shame that the food and coffee let it down. read more.
