I go here semi regularly for breakfast with friends and every time it always produces the goods! Super good value for money, I can recommend the big breakfast and they are flexible with doing swaps/add ons. Great lunch menu as well, although the service is inconsistent. Sometimes we are greeted and our order taken straight away, sometimes we have had to wait up to half an hour to order. Overall, good food and can rec... read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about The White Rabbit:

I've been going here for at least a year. Over that year the service has dropped abysmally but thank god the food has remained amazing. There's a couple of really great staff who i regularly chat too but the amount of new staff that do not understand the basics of hospitality is terrible. Today i waited 20 minutes for a menu, 30 to get my order through and thankfully only 10 for my food to arrive. It was not a hugely... read more.
