We ate here before the Keith Urban concert, so we wanted something that we would receive rather fast. I have been to this hotel before, but only for drinks. It is nice quite place to dine and/or for drinks. The restaurant is small in comparison to a lot of others in Melbourne, but it has a god ambience to it. We had a few small plates to share: - crispy fries with celery salt - they were so good you could not stop ea... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, and there is complimentary WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Lola Ávalos doesn't like about felt at Hotel Lindrum:

Stayed at the hotel which is lovely! We only had breakfast here on our last day, food was cold and just tasted bland compared to all the amazing eats you can have in Melbourne. Menu was too 'fancy' and 'alternate' just make a good tasting, hot breakfast and you will never fail. read more. Typical European menus, that's what the felt at Hotel Lindrum from Melbourne offers, Likewise, the visitors of the restaurant prefer the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, for breakfast they serve a varied breakfast here.
