One of the better Vietnamese options in the CBD. We have not been to the St Kilda venue but had been recommended this place. We went for a quick lunch prior to visiting the cinema. We had been to Coda the night before and though not at that quality or price level it still compares favourably to it. The best of the dishes we had was the school prawn with tofu. A small dish packed with flavour. Lovely tofu and crispy p... read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What Lucy Marks doesn't like about Uncle Collins Street:

hospitality uncle collins street was our chosen place. they celebrate years of our stay in Australia. To be honest, the hospitality was just perfect. even after a lot of work, they could bring us down and then the participant went out of his. I'm worried. eating is amazing, no complaining about it. we took the meal that allowed us to taste so many beautiful things. we went before and ordered special cocktails separat... read more. If you crave for desserts, Uncle Collins Street with its magical desserts can surely make an end of it, In addition, many visitors look forward to enjoying traditional Vietnamese dishes with the perfect hint of Southeast Asian flavor during a visit at the Uncle Collins Street. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Uncle Collins Street. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known dishes too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients eat, and you can look forward to the fine traditional seafood cuisine.
