We were staying at a hotel down the road and with limited phone battery we walked past the ale house and on a whim popped in. I liked the warm decor, which although not cosy was still pleasant. The beer selection while not the most impressive was still good and catered well. We had the baramundi and chicken burger. My friends baramundi was good by all accounts but this is my review and I had the chicken burger which... read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about The Windsor Alehouse:

This is my local pub and since the reno last year, I now pop in occasionally for a drink or two however had never eaten here until last night. Love the vibe with the open gas heater and dim lighting. However the dim lighting was of little value when I noticed halfway through my parma it was uncooked in the middle! Although they have lovely staff, there was no offer for the food to be compensated, only the option of a... read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only tasty cuisine, but also a large and comprehensive selection of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, Naturally, you should also taste the fine burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges served. The pleasure of various sports events is just as much a big draw, when you are in this sports bar, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
