Peranakan place is a little hidden Gem, if you like to have taste of singapore/malaysia food. Excellent food and taste like home made.. worth a try if you visit sydney read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Peranakan Place:

We didn't really enjoy our meal here, but I think it probably didn't help we were a bit short on time. When what arrived on our table wasn't at all what we thought (looks or taste) we didn't really have the time to experience it like it probably should have been. If nonya cuisine is a new thing to you like it completely was to us, don't rush in expecting a quick bite before your movie! Take the time and enjoy it and... read more. If you crave for sweet treats, Peranakan Place with its fine desserts can easily make an end of it, Among the customers, especially fine juices are highly sought after. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Peranakan Place. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known menus too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients enjoy, Moreover, one can find an very good selection of various Malaysian national dishes such as Wantan, Roti, Naan and also Ayam in the menu.
